

Song 151 "He Will Call"

1. Life, like a mist, appears for just a day,
Then disappears tomorrow.

All that we are can quickly fade away,
Replaced with tears and sorrow.

If a man should die, can he live again?
Hear the promise God has made:

(CHORUS)

He will call; The dead will answer.

They will live at his command.

For he will have a longing

For the work of his own hand.

So have faith, and do not wonder,

For our God can make us stand.

And we will live forever,

As the work of his own hand.

2. Friends of our God, though they may pass away,

Will never be forsaken.

All those asleep who in God's mem'ry stay,

From death he will awaken.

Then we'll come to see all that life can be:

Paradise eternally.

(CHORUS)

Remembering Charles

Charles Anderson Rainey was born in Cleveland, Ohio on September 12, 1955 to Albert Dean Rainey of Mississippi & Margaret Marie Bryant of Virginia (both deceased). He grew up in Cleveland and graduated from Max Hayes, where he studied plumbing and engineering. He served in the military as a Marine.

Charles was a general contractor with many years of experience. He specialized in plumbing and electrical work but was also skilled in other construction trades. Contracting work took him to multiple states from Ohio, Indiana and Michigan. His home improvement skills were valued by all. He was always willing to help friends and family with any size project from kitchen remodeling to basement wall repair and waterproofing along with complete home renovations. Later he decided to become a certified nurse aid (CNA) because of his love and empathy for people. Charles was employed as a CNA at a nursing home where he loved to take care of others. He was well loved by all who knew him for his generosity and his infectious smile. Charles will truly be missed.

Charles passed away on November 8, 2023. He was preceded in death by his parents, Margaret and Albert Rainey, his two sisters, Dorothy Hawkins and Roseanne (Marvin Wilson).

He leaves to cherish his memory a brother Albert Rainey (Cameo), two sisters, Marguerite Phillips (Roland), and Marilyn Rainey. Also, his children: Christopher Davis, Sheronda Lynn Martin, Charlene Walker, Iesha Kimbrough, and Nathaniel Walker.
